Thank You! Your donation is understood to be given without restriction as to the use or disposition by the Jefferson County Public Library Foundation. Historically, some donated items have been added to the library collection; others given to non-profit organizations and the remainder sold at the Friends of the Jefferson County Public Library book sales. Income from donated items provides funding for library programs such as the Traveling Children's Library, Summer Reading programs and library enhancements.

If you file this donation with the IRS, include the following:
